That's an excellent question...we lost a motion to suppress based on the search warrant for the house, so the bulk of the drugs (the ones found in the house) have been suppressed. What remains is the drugs in the car with [REDACTED], which was the 6 gram amount.

Sorry for so many emails, but I have a question: Is [REDACTED] the only lab number part of this case? I ask as I see that [REDACTED] is also listed as a co-defendant for [REDACTED] (also for [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]) as well as a co-defendant for [REDACTED] (with [REDACTED]). Thanks.

Hi Sonja,

I have [REDACTED] coming up for trial and wanted to reach out to you to see if there are any days off when you wouldn't be available or days when you are occupied elsewhere (You tested approximately 6 grams of cocaine on this case). I haven't been sent out to a trial judge yet and am still trying to work it out by way of a plea, but wanted to check in with you.

Hope all is well.
